ALBERTA DIRECT TRADE

Alberta direct trade on Wednesday saw light trade develop with dressed sales at $480.00/cwt delivered, $10.00/cwt lower than the previous week. Competition on the cash market remains limited, by the sounds of things at least one major packer is not bidding on cattle this week. The Canadian beef retail price for the month of September was reported at $28.78/kg, establishing new record highs. Retail beef prices are 11% higher than last year. Retail pork prices are at the lowest point since the spring of 2025 and are 7% lower than last year. The price spread between beef and pork remains record large. The historically wide price spread between beef and pork will act as headwinds for the beef complex. Potentially leading to more pork featuring at the retail level.

U.S. TRADE (U.S. FUNDS)

The U.S. cash cattle trade saw light trade reported in Iowa yesterday with live sales ta $210.00/cwt, sales are positioned at the bottom end of last week's trading range. Other than light trade in Iowa business has been quiet in all other feeding regions. Today, live bids of $215.00/cwt have been reported in Texas and Kansas, bids are $3.00/cwt lower than last week. According to the latest World Supply and Demand Report. Corn yields were revised lower to 179.6 bushels per acre. Corn production is forecasted at 15.9 billion bushels down 141 million bushels from last months report. The report gave the corn market some life. Despite the uptick on the futures market the December corn contract is really not to far off contract lows.
