ALBERTA DIRECT TRADE

Alberta direct trade last week saw light trade develop with weighted average steer price closing the week around $292.00/cwt, $7.00/cwt lower than the previous week, establishing new annual price lows. Historically large US feeder cattle import volumes last fall has to a certain degree under pinned the Western Canadian fed market. Packers seem well covered with cattle resulting in limited packer competition. In many instances last week packers were not bidding on cattle. Butcher cows traded mostly steady through commercial auction facilities. Non-fed numbers have seasonally increased.

U.S. TRADE (U.S. FUNDS)

The U.S. cash cattle trade saw no new trade to report, and significant trade will likely be delayed until the second half of this week. Asking prices are poorly defined but are expected to start out around $220.00/cwt on a live basis. Showlist volumes in Colorado and Nebraska have been reported smaller. After sharp losses over the past week and a half, the cattle market got some good news yesterday. Tyson Foods announced by the summer of 2027 the Amarillo beef plant will go back to two shifts per day. The plant in Amarillo Texas has been down to one shift per day for the past few months.
