ALBERTA DIRECT TRADE

Alberta direct trade is very quiet with little business expected before Wednesday afternoon. Canfax reports a smaller offering this week with asking prices around $270.00 plus delivered on a dressed basis.

U.S. TRADE (U.S. funds)

The U.S. cash cattle trade remains untested and is expected to remain that way until Wednesday at the earliest. Bids and asking prices are unestablished at this time. A fire at the JBS Nebraska plant over the weekend sent cattle futures lower on Monday, however word is that the plant is up and running again Tuesday afternoon, noting the fire was in the rendering section, and not production. Computer issues Monday at the Tyson plant also halted production there putting pressure on the futures, however that issue has also been resolved. Cattle futures traded higher today on the news.
