ALBERTA DIRECT TRADE

Alberta direct trade remains untested with Canfax noting bids at $257.00 cwt delivered on a dressed basis, steady to last week's sales. Canfax reports: "Competition on the cash market remains limited, in certain instances one packer is not even bidding on cattle. Some cattle have been carried over for the past two weeks and there could be additional pressure to sell cattle this week."

U.S. TRADE (U.S. funds)

The US cash cattle trade was very light Wednesday at $128.00 live and $202.00 dressed up $2.00 from last week. Bids were reported at $128.00 live in all feeding states and $202.00-$203.00 dressed in the north, but most sellers resisted and are holding out for better prices. Today, bids have returned at $128.00 live in all feeding states and $202.00 dressed in Nebraska, but no selling interest has developed at these prices. Packer interest is expected to improve as the day progresses but sellers are holding asking prices firm at $130.00 live in the south and $205.00-$206.00 dressed in the north. If both sides dig in trade could be delayed until Friday.
