ALBERTA DIRECT TRADE

Alberta direct trade on Wednesday saw light trade develop with dressed sales reported at $500.00/cwt delivered, $8.00-10.00/cwt higher than the previous week. Buying interest has been noted from all Western Canadian packers. Packers are still long bought but one positive over the past little bit, is that packer lift times have started to tighten up. Since early September the Canadian dollar has dropped over 150 basis points. The softer Canadian dollar is positive for the cattle market and should support Canadian beef exports.

U.S. TRADE (U.S. FUNDS)

The U.S. cash cattle trade saw light trade reported in Iowa and Nebraska yesterday with dressed sales at $350.00/cwt, fully steady with the previous week. A few cattle traded in Iowa at $220.00/cwt on a live basis, a couple dollars weaker. Business in the Southern feeding states has been quiet with no bids to speak of. Today, the Santa Teresa port in New Mexico opened to Mexican feeder cattle. Some industry officials are expecting 750-1,600 cattle to cross that port on a daily basis. This is now the second port to re-open to Mexican cattle. The Douglas Arizona port has been operational for a month now and has seen roughly 6,500 head of cattle move through the port since opening.
