Comments for the week ending April 16, 2020

There were 458 fed steers and heifers sold through auction markets this week, up 170 from last week and 266 more than this time last year. Fed steers sold from $127.45-$147.87 averaging $139.04 up $1.56 from last week and $8.34 below last year at this time. Fed heifers traded from $129.10-$141.94 averaging $136.75 up $6.02 from last week and $6.42 lower than year ago prices. Auction markets reported prices steady to $2.00-$3.00 cwt higher.

The Ontario railgrade market was quiet again this week until Tuesday and Wednesday where light trade was reported at prices steady to last week, with steers at $238.00 dressed and heifers from $237.00-$238.00. This week's average prices are $19.50 below year ago prices.

The Boxed Beef Report by Kevin Grier notes Canadian product availability: "Packers seemed to have more around them last week even though slaughter in Canada was greatly reduced last week due to the holiday and coronavirus related slowing of the harvests. That will continue this week particularly with the loss of the second shift and Cargill High River. This week supplies of Canadian product will be very tight. Packers went into last week with work to do but the situation has changed." As an overview, Kevin notes that last week beef prices "came off sharply as grocery store traffic and buying patterns settled into a more predictable or new normal pattern."

Lighter receipts of cull/fed cows sold through auction markets this week with 2,265 head sold which is down 251 from last week's larger volumes, but up 103 from this time last year. Cows sold from $53.96-$71.48 averaging $62.10 up $6.88 from last week and $0.80 below year ago prices. Auction markets reported prices as steady to fully steady with one market noting prices up by $4.00 cwt on Tuesday.
