Under Regulation 54 of the Beef Cattle Marketing Act, a compulsory check-off of $5.50 per head sold by cattle producers is payable to BFO to fund its programs and activities. Packing plant operators, auction market operators and livestock dealers purchasing cattle by private treaty are required to deduct the BFO check-off from the proceeds payable to the seller and remit check-off fees to the BFO.

The Ontario Beef Magazine is funded through BFO check-off dollars, paid by our membership. BFO members receive this complimentary magazine five times a year in February, May, August, October and December.

Non-members can subscribe to the publication for a yearly cost of $25.00+HST payable to the Beef Farmers of Ontario.

Please complete this form and mail along with a cheque in the amount $28.25 payable to the Beef Farmers of Ontario to:
