

CHECK-OFF DEDUCTION REMITTANCE FORM

Every cattle seller (including sales by private treaty) is required under Regulation 54 of the Beef Cattle Marketing Act to pay a $4.50 per head Ontario license fee and a $2.50 per head national levy, for a total of a $7.00 per head check-off. Breeding stock, cull dairy cows, and beef calves are included. Exemptions exist only for cattle sold for the production of milk and veal (which is governed by separate marketing regulations specific to the veal and dairy sectors). Fees are payable by the 15th of the month following deduction. Licenced Livestock Dealers who sell cattle within seven business days of having purchased them may apply for a rebate with proper documentation.
